

As a part of the general facilities at KU and complying with the vision of the research sector, our vision is to foster multidisciplinary research activities of significant potentials in the fields of advanced engineering materials and nanotechnology with state-of-the-art laboratory facilities.