

The mission of KUNRF is to promote and facilitate the advancement of scientific research in the College of Engineering and Petroleum in particular and Kuwait University at large in the fields of advanced engineering materials and nanotechnology.